Yates, Mr. Horace Linton, Mr. Richard Potter Long, Mr. Robert Lamb, Mr. William Rodenburg, Jr., Mr. Jack Hudgins, Misspiman Hall, Mr. Merriek Parker, Mr. Connor, Mr. Sanford and Mr. Charles Bayne Davis.

Mr. Richard Whitmore Harr, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Harr of Chevy Chase, is home from Yale for the Christmas holidays.

While a student at Central High School Mr. Harr drew the original designs for the war memorial panels in Central's library, which are attracting considerable attention.

Mrs. Benjamin E. Smith will give a small dance tonight in compliment to her house guest, Misspiman Harry L. Ferguson of Panama. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Smith gave a tea for her schoolgirl daughter, Miss Margaret Ludlow Smith, entertaining a group of young people who are at home from college for the holidays.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Alexander Campbell Gibbs, Mrs. George F. Anthier and Mrs. Simon Michielet, who were assisted by a group of debutantes. Tuesday evening Mrs. Michielet gave a dinner dance at the University Club for the same set of young people in honor of her three sons, Cadet Paul Michielet of West Point, Misspiman William Michielet of Annapolis and Mr. Karl Michielet of Princeton.

Mrs. James C. Davis will entertain a supper party at Le Paradis tomorrow night, having ten guests.

Mayor and Mrs. William B. Ellison of Johnson City, Tenn., are in Washington for a few days, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Everett M. Ellison, on M street.

Commander and Mrs. D. A. Scott, who are in Washington for an exciting visit, are stopping at Wardman Park Hotel.

Mrs. C. M. Perkins, wife of Col. Perkins, has returned from New York, accompanied by her son, Cadet Charles E. Woodruff of West Point, who will be with her at the Leo House until after the New Year.

Mrs. Edwin Hillier entertained at tea yesterday a number of guests at Le Paradis.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Merrill of San Francisco, who have been in Washington for several months, and have taken an apartment at the Burlington Hotel.

Lieut. Commander Neta Appel of the Brazilian navy and Mrs. Appel are in Washington for a brief visit and are at the Powhatan.

Capt. Edwin A. Bethel, U. S. A., who for a year has been the engineer officer in charge of the forces in Germany, returned to this country in time to spend Christmas in Washington with his family, and left last evening for Chattanooga, Tenn., where he will join Mrs. Bethel and remain while recuperating.

A Christmas holiday wedding of special interest in Washington was that at Camp Douglas, Wis., of Miss Charlotte Williams, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Charles Williams, and Lieut. John Magruder Bethel, son of Capt. and Mrs. Edwin A. Bethel of Washington, at noon on Wednesday, December 27. Shortly after the wedding Lieut. Bethel and his bride left for his post at Fort Bliss, Tex.

Miss Florence Berryman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford K. Berryman, has as a guest for the holidays Mrs. Donald L. Dutton, wife of Capt. Dutton, stationed at Fort Monroe. Miss Berryman has planned a series of interesting entertainments for her guests, which includes a bridge tournament, afternoon at the Washington Club, a New Year eve party Sunday night and a luncheon and bridge Thursday.

Miss Aeneath Cox, debutante daughter of Interstate Commerce Commissioner and Mrs. Frederick Irving Cox, has as her house guest Miss Emily Allen, who recently returned to this country from Paris. A number of parties have been planned in honor of the girls, among them a dinner party at Wardman Park Hotel tonight, preceding the Junior League dance.

Confederate Veterans' Reception New Year Day.

The annual New Year reception of the District of Columbia Confederate United Daughters of the Confederacy, which is given in honor of the Confederate veterans, will be held at the Confederate Memorial Home, 1322 Vermont avenue, Monday afternoon, January 1, from 3 to 6 o'clock. All veterans, daughters, sons and the children of the Confederacy are invited and asked to take part in the reception.

Mrs. Vincent Kerens of New York, who was a guest of Mrs. G. A. Hawley and Miss Matilda Hawley, of their apartment at Wardman Park Hotel, has taken a suite in the hotel for an indefinite time. Mrs. Kerens is accompanied by her daughter, Miss E. Janina Kerens.

Mrs. J. T. Markley entertained at a beautifully appointed tea at her apartment in Copley Courts yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Miss Warner Gibbs sang several numbers, with Miss Eunice Taylor accompanying at the piano. Assisting Miss Markley were Miss Fisher Taylor, Miss Park and Miss Polling of Washington, Va. Miss Taylor and Mrs. Newman were at the tea table.

Miss Nan Mosser entertained informally at Le Paradis yesterday for her house guest, Miss Ruth L. Henson of Lynchburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar R. Weber of 25 Johnson avenue, Hyattsville, Md., will be at home on the evening of New Year day from 7 to 12 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederico C. Mills and their son, Barrat Van Auken Mills, of New York city, are spending the holiday season at the Arlington Hotel.
